

The NIMBLE THIMBLE

<http://www.nbquilts.org/>

President's Message

I have been keeping a secret from you. I am not sure why. Maybe it is that sometimes when you have a new friend, you don't want to share her with anyone – at least not for a while. That may be why I keep her in my basement. My husband was jealous at first since I spend a lot of time with her. Now he is reconciled with having another woman in his life.

Now that "Ava" and I have bonded and had some quality time together, I think it is time for me to come clean and profess my new love to the quilt world. I purchased Ava at last April's MQX Show. She is a Handquilter Avante. Once we each learned not to be too "tense," with each other, we started making beautiful music together (or quilts, I guess).

When I am not playing with Ava, I am watching longarm training videos. Sometimes I even see my husband transfixed watching Linda Taylor creating flowing feathers on her longarm. It is quite addictive. I am hoping for a snowy winter, conducive to lots of quilting.

My other new passion is ice dyeing. I have written before about hand dyeing and snow dyeing. A couple of months ago Quilting Arts magazine had an article about ice dyeing. New member, Cathey LaBonte, tried it and brought some samples to the September meeting. I was dubious about the difference between ice and snow dyeing, but she had good results, so I decided to give it a try. Wow! What fun! So easy! And I really do like the results better than snow dyeing. Best of all, no need to wait for snow.

I hope you all have a joyous holiday season and that you are hard at work making not only gifts for friends and family, but also quilts for our Spring Show.

Narragansett Bay Quilter's Association
GENERAL MEETING October 20, 2011

President: Melanie Johnston called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM. She congratulated former member Barbara Fitzsimmons for getting an essay published in the latest Quilters Newsletter magazine.

Special Events: Louise Pankiewicz is still taking signups for the bus trip to Quilter's Gathering in Nashua, NH on November 5, for $35 a person (including non-members).

Comfort Quilts: Donna Woodworth asked for 4 volunteers to help transport fabric to the church on the 21st at 4:30. The Quiltathon will be at the church on the 22nd from 9:30 – 3:30.

Program: There are still a couple of openings in Carol Ann Grotrian's workshop. Pat Harrison's workshop on EQ7 in January is a demo, no computer required. Kassie Randall and Denise Greenlund will be doing a mystery quilt workshop. Melanie also announced that she had a bag for Historian Mary Ann Laprise.

Studio Art Quilter Carol Ann Grotrian gave an interesting lecture and trunk show on indigo dyeing.

Treasurer: Beginning balance $19,289.52 in the General Fund, GF Income $4,834.90; GF Expenses $5,256.70; General Fund ending balance $18,867.72, Quilt Show balance $8,000.

Vice President: Billie Bunnewith reminded everyone that raffle tickets were available and she is accepting money. Sharon Mayer was the first to turn in her proceeds.

Newsletter: Melanie asked anyone having problems to let her know, and to take home any unclaimed magazines you brought tonight.

Quilt Show: Joan Halley announced that the registration forms would be in the newsletter. The first page was instructions (please read) and both the second and third pages needed to be filled out completely including the claim tickets at the bottom. A category for the fat quarter challenge has been added. Please include a 3 X5 or 4x6 size photo. Please donate small quilts or bags for the NEQM auction. Also mug mats for the door prize (please make ten). Next month she will have the sign up sheets for the volunteers. Cindy Cory is looking for volunteers to do demos at the show.

Allison Wilbur sent around a sign up sheet for volunteers to help put together some quilt blocks made in Belize as part of a special aid project.

Hospitality: Mary Padbury sent around another sign up sheet and announced that the email notifications were working well.

Publicity: Joanne Martino invited everyone to check out the publicity table,

Fat Quarters: 27 were awarded. Next month's fabric will be black and white.

Block of the Month: Lisa Taft won the blocks. Next month's pattern is for red and green Light House Stars. The patterns for each month are available as links on the website. Chrissy Bonin showed off the sampler she made from all the patterns plus a mariner's compass block.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:06 PM. Submitted by Joan Potter, Secretary.

Newcomer's Corner

We hope you are having a great time as a "newer" member of NBQA and are making new friends and attending workshops and other quilting events. We want to hear from you! Tell us about a quilter that inspires you or a quilting technique that interests you. Are there any workshops you would like to see added to our workshops for next year? What about trips to quilt shows or quilt shops?

Question: What do you think of including pictures of new members in the September newsletter? Maybe a group shot? We'd love to hear your comments and opinions.

See you at our next meeting. Don't forget to wear your pink ribbon on your name tag. We look forward to seeing what creative twists you have used to make your nametag unique.

Quilt - a - thon

Donna Woodworth

We had a Fabulous Day! I set a goal of 35,000 square inches of tops and the fast fingers of the 30 who attended made 76,599 square inches of quilt tops! Hope all the folks who will be willing to do the quilting will be ready to volunteer at the next meeting.

Thank you also goes out to the folks who contributed another 8 quilts at the last meeting. I really appreciate the support the group is giving to this project.

Mug Mats

Please don't forget to make mug mats. They can be any design. They should be about 4" to 5" square. These are used and enjoyed by many of the attendees and it is a reminder to them that the show is coming again. Please help by making some. We will need about 1500 mug mats. The directions for the mug mats are on the NBQA website. Thank you to all. Virginia Perry

Upcoming Workshops

We have some terrific workshops coming up!

On Thursday November 17, Esterita Austin will do her workshop – “Rock Wood & Water.” Esterita is a favorite of ours. She does some amazing work. Her workshop is full but you if you would like to be on the waiting/cancellation list, please send an email.

On Saturday Jan 14, Pat Harrison will do a workshop - Simply Designing with Electric Quilt (EQ). This is a great piece of software. You can use it to print out strip piecing or paper piecing directions for a favorite block in any size you need. See what a quilt with 2 different blocks might look like together, or make up a totally new design, too. Come take this class to see what it is all about. No computer is needed for class. Pat will demo the software and you will have a hands on experience using the instructions and design created by the program.

On Saturday February 18, Kassie Randall and Denise Greenlund will once again be doing their magic. Their workshops are always fun and very popular. Sign up early so you do not miss out. This workshop is really a “must do” for new members and/or new quilters. You will meet lots of nice people, make a great project and learn some good quilting tips.

To sign up for a class, visit the Workshop table at a meeting or send an email to:

nbqamail@gmail.com.

Members in the News

Congratulations to Barbara Fitzsimmons whose essay, "Pairing Loves - Books and Quilts" was published in the Oct/Nov issue of Quilters Newsletter Magazine. She writes about making the quilts based on children's books that were our quilt show special exhibit in 2008.

Congratulations to Joan Johnson, Chris Bagley, & Cindy Cory for taking 1st, 2nd & 3rd place in the NBQA Summer Challenge!

Pat Harrison's "Monet's Venetian Puzzle" and "Melon Patch" were included in the exhibit "Here comes the Judge" at the 2011 Pacific West Quilt Show, August 26-28 in Tacoma, WA. Pat's original Scrappy Star quilt and Sandy Barron's batik version are featured in "Fons & Porters" Fall 2011 issue of Scrap Quilts, page 38-42.

2012 Quilt Show Basket Raffle

Joan Halley

The Basket Raffle has always been a popular and profitable part of our quilt shows. This year we are asking individuals or groups to donate a complete basket for the raffle. You may bring the basket filled, arranged, and wrapped in plastic or just filled, and we will arrange and wrap it for you. Baskets may be dropped off at NBQA meetings from November to March.

Guide lines for Baskets:

New or gently used products, Must not smell of smoke or mold

Items that you would want in a basket yourself

The more that is in a basket the more money it will make

Containers may be any size from 12 inches up and need not be a basket (e.g. tote bag, hat box, kids toy, planter, cooking pot)

Basket Raffle Theme Suggestions

Garden, Baby, Novelty, Sports, Children, Chocolate, Christmas,

Tea/Coffee, Floral, Wool, Nautical, Beach/Ocean, Stars, Retro

Country, Rainbow, Traditional/ Reproductions, Fat Quarters, 30', Art

Applique, Games, Fruit & Vegetable

Quilt Show 2012-Garden of Quilts

Joan Halley

Mark your calendars for the NBQA Garden of Quilts Show April 21 and 22, 2012 at North Kingstown High School. Set up will be on April 19 and 20.

Now is the time to finish those gorgeous creations you are working on. Look for registration forms in this newsletter and on the website. The forms are due by February 16, 2012 with a photo of the "at least mostly finished" quilt.

Please print one form for each entry and only print on one side since we send each page to a different person for typing and arranging the quilts. Note that we have added the category "Fat Quarter Challenge" for our fabric challenge entries. Please read all the instructions and fill in the form completely.

We again offer the opportunity to have your quilts evaluated by a professional quilt judge, Beverly Fine. The judging will be done with a point system, so there is the potential for multiple ribbons in each category. This is a great opportunity to see how your quilting skills "measure up."

The special exhibit is the Fat Quarter Fabric Challenge. Over 70 people have purchased the fat quarter, so we expect to see a fantastic display of all our various talents. The official display and voting for ribbons will be at the February meeting, but we will also accept quilts finished later for the display at the show. No I am not giving you permission to procrastinate!

And while you are at your sewing machine, please make a small quilt for the auction to benefit the NE Quilt Museum. We also need about 1500 mug mats and yo-yo pins to give as door favors. If everyone could make 10 we will easily reach our goal.

At the meetings look for the sign up sheets for volunteers for both preparation for the show and working during the show. There are jobs large and small, standing and sitting, working at home or at the school – something for everyone.

How corny is that? Joan

Meet Our 2012 NBQA Quilt Show Judge

Beverly Fine National Quilting Association Certified Judge

About me:

I made a simple nine-patch quilt for a friend while I was in high school, but I didn't become a dedicated quilter until 1996. I didn't know then that it would change the direction of my life, but I soon learned that it was impossible to make only ONE quilt! Now I am active in three quilt guilds. I have found that with every new opportunity to learn, there is also an opportunity to serve. I have served as President of the Quilters' Connection guild in Watertown, MA, and recently finished a four year term on their Board of Directors. I have volunteered as an assistant curator at the New England Quilt Museum. I founded and produced the five annual quilt shows to benefit the Thayer (Lancaster, MA) Memorial Library Building Fund from 2000-2004

I became a National Quilting Association Certified Judge in 2003 and have served as the NQA Judges Certification Program Coordinator since 2008. I co-authored the new book Guide to Judged Quilt Shows, available through www.nqa.org or Amazon.

I am passionate about making my own original quilts, but consider traditional quilt scholarship important as well. I currently focus my own work on monoprinting (using an etching press and/or fabric marbling) as well as dye-painting and shibori techniques. Dyeing, painting, and printing the essential plain white cloth simply fascinate me. As I play with colors and shapes, the marks and choices combine. Often, an unexpected connection appears and tells me a story. I accept these gifts and nurture them with imagination, some patience and craftsmanship. By featuring this new cloth in my quilts, the stories are more easily discovered.

Jim's Dock, Jerusalem, R. I.

Fat Quarter of the Month Sharon Bibeault

The Fat Quarter of the Month raffle has become an amazing success thanks to all members who have been so generous with their donations of fat quarters for the raffle.

Remember, members will receive a raffle ticket for each fat quarter they bring. At the end of the meeting one ticket will be drawn to win the whole stash of fat quarters.

Below are the next monthly themes:

November: black and white

January: flannels

Magazine Swap Diana Funke

Thank you to all of you who have brought in magazines for our magazine swap. A table with a "Magazine Swap" sign on it is in the lobby, where you may drop off and pick up magazines.

Any magazines left at the end of the meeting will go to a book and magazine recycling center.

New England Quilt Museum

Virginia Perry

The new exhibit at the museum is "Patience to Raise the Sun". This is an exhibit of quilts made by women from seven communities to support their families. These are colorful and poignant art quilts that are sold abroad. Along with this exhibit there will be different events.

On Saturday, Nov. 12th at 11AM there will be a Haitian Quilters Workshop to make blocks for a fundraiser quilt. On Saturday, Nov. 17th from 10AM to 3PM, Haitian Quilters & NEQM Community Quilters get together.

Our Miniature Quilt Auction to benefit the museum will be held during the quilt show and Bill Spicer has agreed to be our auctioneer again. We will need some items to auction off. As we did the last Miniature Quilt Auction, we will accept handbags, table runners, etc. in addition to miniature quilts. If you have any questions contact me. You have always been very supportive in the past and I know the museum is very appreciative.
